

PRESIDENT'S DINNER – CAADAC ANNUAL AWARDS

Every year, CAADAC takes time to honor individuals who have gone above and beyond in carrying out our mission. This year's awards will be presented during the President's Dinner & Dance, Saturday, October 3, in Rancho Cordova, CA. The award categories are:

1. The Hall of Fame Award—the nominee must be a past or current member-in-good-standing of CAADAC. They have made a contribution both as a leader in the field of alcohol and drug counseling, and to the growth of the Association. The Hall of Fame Award is presented for distinguished service, achievements and/or contributions to the prestige and growth of CAADAC.
2. The George C. Cobbs Jr Award —established in 1993, this award is given in the name of a man who personifies its vision, George C. Cobb. This award honors CAADAC members who have given outstanding service above and beyond the call of serving on a board or representing a region. This candidate will be someone who goes beyond the regular volunteer continuing to serve in any capacity needed and has remained loyal to CAADAC over the years; personifying the ethical standards CAADAC wishes to represent to the community. The nominee must be a current member-in-good-standing of CAADAC. They must have sat on the CAADAC Board of Directors (past or present).
3. The James Fulton Award — the nominee must be a past or current member-in-good-standing. Given in memory of Past President James Fulton, this award is given annually to an alcohol and/or drug counselor at our annual conference. The candidate must have been a long-term line counselor who has served as a model for others and influenced both clients and peers. He/she must be a current member of CAADAC and certified by the CCBADC.
4. The Joseph A. Giannantonio II Award — the nominee must be a current member-in-good-standing of CAADAC. He/she will have made an outstanding contribution to counselor education and been recognized within academia for his/her leadership skills. He/she will have taught in the field of addiction treatment education for a minimum of five years (10-15 years preferred). Coordination of a school or college drug and alcohol program is highly desirable.

Please utilize the nomination form to nominate someone who you deem deserving of an award.
