

Family & Addiction August 29, 9am-1pm

Participants will learn how the disease of addiction impacts not only the addict/alcoholic, but how its direct consequences fall on the immediate family members. Some participants will be asked to be part of a mock role play of the “dinner table” which identifies the roles of adaptation: scapegoat, hero, mascot, lost child and enabler.

Presented by

Joe Aragon

CADC II, ICADC, SAP

Mr. Aragon is the current president of CAADAC, is Clinical Coordinator at InterCoast Colleges, is the Department Coordinator for Mt. San Jacinto College, and has been a program manager and director of various treatment programs in Riverside County.

Craving & Relapse May 16, 9am-1pm

The craving cycle happens to all alcoholics and addicts in recovery and always precedes relapse, a dangerous place to be. This workshop presentation provides practical information about how to deal with the craving cycle and minimize the relapse potential.

Presented by

Bob Tyler

BA, CADC II, ICADC

Mr. Tyler is the immediate past president of CAADAC, is Director of Operations and Clinical Services at Twin Town Treatment Centers, teaches at Loyola Marymount University Extension, and authored “Enough Already! A guide to recovery from alcohol and drug addiction.”

Ethics

Nov 14, 9am-1pm

Ethics for addiction professionals will be covered, and practical application of ethical principles to situations faced by the counselor, including counselor-client and counselor-employer relationships, as well as for counselors who teach, publish, consult, advertise, refer or conduct research.

Presented by

Warren Daniels
